

Reef balls help to preserve and restore marine environments

Reef balls are designed artificial reefs that are made of marine friendly concrete.

They are shaped to improve protective space for fish and include rough textures to enhance coral attachment.

Reef Ball

Jay Hemdal

Generously donated by Reef Innovations